

The Route of Learning

A STRUCTURAL

With a wide, flat, paved walkway, the new path connects the main building to the library, the student center, and the gymnasium. The path is designed to be a central hub for the campus, providing a clear route for students and faculty alike. The path is flanked by green lawns and trees, creating a pleasant walking environment.

The walkway is designed to be a central hub for the campus, providing a clear route for students and faculty alike. The path is flanked by green lawns and trees, creating a pleasant walking environment.

The walkway is designed to be a central hub for the campus, providing a clear route for students and faculty alike. The path is flanked by green lawns and trees, creating a pleasant walking environment.

