

View of the south facade with village shop and snack garden

The building opens onto the forecourt with a new village shop. There is apple tart from the garden and fresh mint tea. In the snack garden, the gardening club grows zucchini and eggplants under the guidance of Mr. Meierding from the day care center. Mr. Meierding is a trained gardener.